Florist Father Of Cops Robbed

A florist shop owner, who is the father of two Oakland policemen, was robbed today by two men who held him at gun point while they tied his hands behind his back.

Waller J. Prentice, 67, of 8001 Crow Canyon Road, Hayward, said two men entered his store, the Lockwood Florists, at 6732 E. 14th St., and forced him into the back room where they tied him and took his wallet containing about $50.
